

SUMMARY

- Over 300 people have lost their lives due to the floods in Kerala.
- Over 5 lakh people have been displaced.
- More than 70,000 kilometers of roads have been damaged.
- There's been extensive damage to crops and 2 lakh farmers affected.
- The state is running over 2,000 camps housing over 3 lakh people.
- Kerala's Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan has estimated the loss at over Rs 19,000 crore.